

AFR LEAD
presents

Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation Tours

Ardmore, Okla.

September 11, 2015
10:00 a.m.

Spend the day with LEAD at the largest private foundation in Oklahoma as we tour the campus, plant science research programs and more.

- 10:00 a.m. — Arrival to Noble Foundation Kruse Auditorium
- 10:05 a.m. — Welcome & Overview of Noble History,
Adam Calaway, Director of Communications
- 10:15 a.m. — Crisis in Agriculture,
Adam Calaway, Director of Communications
- 10:45 a.m. — Greenhouse Tour,
David McSweeney
- 11:30 a.m. — Campus Tour,
Mary Means, Event & Hospitality Manager
- 12:00 p.m. — Lunch provided by AFR at campus pavilion
- 12:30 p.m. — Feral Hog Research, TBD
- 1:10 p.m. — Sport Fish Pond Management,
Mike Porter, Senior Consultant Wildlife & Fisheries
- 2:10 p.m. — Hoop House Construction,
Steve Upson, Consultant Soils & Crops
- 3:00 p.m. — Pecan Industry & Research,
Charles Rohla, Horticulture Researcher
- 4:00 p.m. — Depart Noble Foundation

RSVP Today!

Registration is limited to the first 50 participants.

For more information or to register contact AFR LEAD Coordinator Megan Albright at megan.albright@afrmic.com or 405.218.5416

